Cop. 2

Amendments approved on June 29, 1931, to Regulations for Warehousesmen Storing Seeds, November 21, 1930.

Amend Regulation 6, Section 1, to read:

"There shall be charged, assessed, and collected a fee of $10 for each warehousesman's license or any amendment thereto, and a fee of $3 for each license issued to a sampler, grader, weigher or an inspector."

Amend Regulation 6, Section 2 to read:

"There shall be charged, assessed, and collected for each original examination or inspection of a warehouse under the act, when such examination or inspection is made upon application by a warehousesman, a fee at the rate of $4 for each 1,000 hundredweight of the storage capacity, or fraction thereof, determined in accordance with regulation 3, section 2, paragraph 1, but in no case less than $10 nor more than $200, and, for each reexamination or reinspection applied for by such warehousesman, a fee based on the extent of the reexamination or reinspection, proportioned to but not greater than that prescribed for the original examination or inspection."

Amend Regulation 6, Section 3, to read:

"Before any warehousesman's license or amendment thereto, or any sampler's, grader's, weigher's or inspector's license, is granted, or an original examination or inspection, or re-examination or reinspection, applied for by a warehousesman, is made, pursuant to these regulations, the warehousesman, and/or sampler, grader, weigher or inspector, shall deposit with the bureau the amount of the fee prescribed therefor. Such deposit shall be made in the form of a check, certified if required by the bureau, draft, or post office or express money order, payable to the order of 'Disbursing Clerk, U.S. Department of Agriculture'."
